

PROFILE OF A Liggett Student

OPEN & EMPATHETIC

Liggett students value different perspectives and viewpoints and seize opportunities to make the world a better place.

CONFIDENT LEADERS/TRAILBLAZERS

Students develop the confidence to believe in their ideas and express themselves persuasively. They use their talents and passions as strengths not only for their own pleasure and benefit, but to change the world around them for the better.

CRITICAL THINKERS

Liggett students ask questions, consider different perspectives, evaluate sources, make connections, construct knowledge, and develop solutions to real world problems.

INQUISITIVE & INTELLECTUALLY CURIOUS

Our students enthusiastically ask questions, seek answers, think outside the box, experiment and reinvent.

ACTIVE COMMUNITY MEMBERS

In the classroom, on the stage, or on the field, Liggett students are active and engaged in the life of the school and community. They are athletes, artists, mentors, leaders, and teachers.

INNOVATIVE PROBLEM-SOLVERS

Liggett students are original and inventive and view failure as an opportunity to learn. They take risks, and develop new ideas and solutions.

OPTIMISTIC

Our students share an excitement about what's next, what the future will bring. They tackle challenges, take risks, and seek solutions.

SKILLED COMMUNICATOR

Liggett students are articulate and effective communicators. Whether spoken or written, students are comfortable sharing ideas, asking questions, and interacting with a variety of audiences and modalities.

COLLABORATIVE

Liggett students share responsibility, consider multiple viewpoints to reach common goals and have the willingness to compromise for the greater good.

FLEXIBLE AND ADAPTABLE

Liggett students demonstrate the ability to adapt to change. They consider feedback and perspectives, say yes to challenge, balance changing priorities, and bounce back from setbacks.
